Coping Social ~ June 29th

We invite you to join us for a very special trip to the Maryhill Museum on June 29th 2010. We will explore the museum's world class art which includes 20th Century works and an extensive Native American Collection as well. We will stop at the complete full sized replica of the English Neolithic Stonehenge first, then on to the museum. After touring the museum, we will partake of a box lunch at the museum's café, than leave to tour and taste the wine at the beautiful and prestigious Maryhill Winery. The cost of the trip is only $25 which includes all expenses. Please make your reservations and payment no later than June 17th as we need to reserve our bus, lunches, and tours. The bus will leave the center promptly at 8:30am and return home at 5:30pm. Don't miss this one!
